

Teacher Access Center Extra Credit

When creating assessments, the extra credit feature may be used. An extra credit assessment will add points to the students' total averages.

new average - student earned 4 of 5 extra credit points

NOTE #1: An extra credit assessment should not be a 100-point assessment, but should be a relatively low number. Remember that extra credit points will not be averaged in with the students' scores, but will be added to the average. In the example below, the extra credit assessment was given a 100-point value. Note the drastically inflated average.

| Student Average | 9/11 Cls Pts:100 | 9/12 Test Pts:100 | 10/19 Test Pts:100 | 11/28 Cls Pts:EC |
|-----------------|------------------|-------------------|--------------------|------------------|
| 172.86 % | 58.00 | 95.00 | 100.00 | 92.00 |

new average student earned 92/100 on extra credit assignment

NOTE #2: If an assessment has both regular points and extra credit points, do not create the assessment as an Extra Credit assessment. It is permissible to enter as a score a number that is higher than the total possible points. For example – if a 100-point assessment has 3 extra credit points available, and a student answered all questions correctly, you can give that student a 103 for the assessment score.

NOTE #3: Extra credit scores that are left blank will not count against the students' averages.
